

European Public Health Alliance (EPHA) data privacy statement

The European Public Health Alliance (EPHA) values the protection and confidentiality of your personal data. Therefore, we comply with applicable data privacy legislation in regards to processing personal data.

We provide users with the opportunity to unsubscribe from our mailing lists through an “unsubscribe” button which is available at the bottom of any emails. You may choose to receive only specific communications or none at all through a special online form “Update your preferences” which is also available at the bottom of all our email communications.

EPHA will use your personal data only for the purpose for which you’ve given permission.

EPHA will not sell, rent, loan, trade, or lease any personal information collected online or offline. All information shall be kept absolutely confidential unless given consent to by the user. EPHA will not share your personal information with others. However, to avoid people receiving multiple invitations to the same co-sponsored event, EPHA reserves the right to share your first name, last name, and employer with partner organisations for the purpose of de-duplicating the final invitation list. We will not share your phone number, email address, or any other contact information.

EPHA uses secure data networks that are protected by firewall and password protection systems that are consistent with industry standards. EPHA’s security and privacy policies are periodically reviewed and enhanced as necessary. Only authorised individuals have access to the information provided by our contacts.

Our database is located in Belgium.

If you wish to stop receiving emails from EPHA, you may do so by clicking the ‘Unsubscribe’ link at the bottom of any email. Alternatively, please email us at: epha@epha.org or write to us at: EPHA, Rue de Trèves 49-51, 1040 Brussels, Belgium.

You have the right to ask for a copy of the information EPHA has about you. Access to information and data rectification. You have at any time the right of access, modification, correction and removal of your data collected in our database. You can request this by contacting EPHA by email at epha@epha.org or in writing at EPHA, Rue de Trèves 49-51, 1040 Brussels, Belgium.
